CUSTOMER AGREEMENT

The following terms and conditions represent the basis upon which driving lessons and driver training is offered by RACT Driver Training. By booking and or paying for a lesson with RACT Driver Training, you are bound by the following terms:

LESSON AVAILABILITY

We conduct driving lessons in Hobart, Launceston, Burnie and Devonport. Bookings are essential, call 1300 761 429 to book your lesson.

DRIVING LICENCES AND FITNESS TO DRIVE

You must hold a current, valid driving licence, learner, provisional, full or (approved) international, and produce it at the beginning of all your driving lessons.

You must be fit to drive with regards to legal and medical requirements and not be under the influence of alcohol or drugs (prescribed or otherwise). You must comply with all the road rules, licence restrictions / conditions and any driving instructions given direct to you by your driving instructor.

Appropriate footwear must be worn. You must not wear high heels, thongs or other footwear which the instructor believes may cause safety concerns with the foot controls. A flat and enclosed shoe is recommended.

Mobile phones must be switched off or turned onto silent during the driving lesson. We do not accept any responsibility for personal property that is left in a vehicle.

PAYMENTS AND CANCELLATION

Prices and availability of lessons are subject to change at any time without notice. All lessons and assessments are required to be paid before they commence, for those on a weekend payment is required by close of business on the Friday prior.

Once paid for, driving lessons are not transferable or refundable for cash or another RACT product and are valid for 12 months. In cases of extreme circumstances exceptions may be made at the discretion of the RACT Driver Training team.

Payments can be made at the RACT Driver Training location you booked at via cash, credit card (Master Card and Visa) or debit card prior to the lesson/s. You can also make payment through our website or over the phone with a credit card. RACT Driver Training does not accept AMEX or Diners Card.

RACT Driver Training recognise that from time to time you may need to reschedule a lesson time or cancel a lesson. When you book a lesson with RACT you are securing a professional trainer's time and allocated a custom training vehicle for your lesson. We ensure that resources are allocated solely to you for the duration of your lesson booking, and as a result there are associated costs with reserving you these resources.

A minimum of 4 hours' notice is required in the instance that you need to cancel or reschedule a lesson time or date. Cancellations can be made by phoning 1300 761 429. If less than 4 hours' notice is provided the full lesson fee will be charged and payable for the lesson.

If no cancellation notice is given and a student fails to arrive or show up for a scheduled driving lesson, fail to have a current driver's licence on them, or are in breach of their conditions, the full lesson fee will be charged and payable for the lesson. We strictly uphold our cancellation, rescheduling and no show policy to ensure that bookings are not speculatively made and that maximum potential availability is maintained for the benefit of each and every student.

RACT Driver Training reserve the right to cancel, postpone or change lesson lengths and start/finish times under certain circumstances (eg, your driving instructor is sick, there are dangerous weather conditions, etc). RACT Driver Training will do everything in it's power to avoid having to do so, however in the event of postponement, any fees paid will be carried forward to the next driving lesson and you will be contacted at the earliest convenience. From time to time your booked instructor may be unavailable for your lesson, in these circumstances an alternative will be provided in their place.

The driving instructor reserves the right to cancel a lesson at short notice or throughout the duration of the lesson if the driving instructor has reasonable grounds to suspect that a student is under the influence of alcohol or drugs (prescribed or otherwise), or suffering from any other condition that would cause the student's driving to be dangerous or illegal, or does not follow the reasonable instructions of the driving instructor. In such circumstances, the lesson fee will not be refunded or carried forward.

LESSON PACKAGE CONDITIONS

Lesson packages and gift certificates are not transferable or refundable for cash or other RACT products. Gift certificates and lesson packages are valid for 12 months from the date of purchase – should any of the purchased lessons not be used within this time, those lessons will be forfeited.

Students who purchase a package of 7 lessons or more, will be gifted free 12 month RACT Roadside Advantage membership after successfully obtaining a provisional (P1) driver's licence. They will also get 15% off vehicle inspections and receive 10% off third party insurance if purchased over the phone or in a branch. Please note third party insurance policies taken out online will not attract the 10% discount.

TRAINING LOCATION

All driving lessons will commence and finish at the same location unless an alternative drop off address has been agreed upon when the original lesson booking was made.

The instructor will determine suitable streets and locations for practical lessons which ensures the safety of the student, instructor and the general public. This may mean that the instructor may need to drive the customer to and from suitable streets and locations, which will still form part of the driving lesson duration and time.

TRAINING VEHICLES

RACT Driver Training will ensure that the training vehicles provided are roadworthy and fitted with dual controls.

RACT Driver Training makes every effort to ensure that its vehicles booked for driving tests will be available but RACT cannot be held responsible if the booked vehicle is unavailable due to vehicle failure that occurs in the day prior, the day of or during the driving test such that it is no longer fully roadworthy nor complies with all the legal requirements and RACT accepts no liability for any consequential loss should the booked vehicle be unavailable. RACT Driver Training accepts no liability for any test bookings cancelled by Service Tasmania.

Driving lessons may from time to time be performed in the student's personal vehicle for full licence holders but only at the discretion of the individual driving instructor. The instructor will assess that your vehicle is roadworthy and that they feel safe to perform driver training without the use of dual controls for the safety of both the student and the instructor.
